Rescindment of Endorsement for Peak Publishing's Pakistan Studies Series

Dear Nigel

Following on from our recent conversation, this letter confirms our decision to rescind endorsement of PFE1749 The History and Culture of Pakistan Revised Edition by Nigel Kelly, Peak Publishing Limited and its related components, the Skills Book and the Teacher's Guide.

The rescindment is effective immediately and the title will be removed from the Cambridge International website.

Before reprinting these titles there are certain conditions that must be met.

1. All remaining print stock for these titles, which carry the Cambridge International endorsement logo must be destroyed.
2. Revised front and back covers should be supplied to Cambridge International for checking that the endorsement logo has been removed and the blue information panel removed from the back cover.
3. Provide the imprints page so that we can check any appropriate disclaimers have been included.
4. Confirm that any past paper questions contained within the resources have been cleared for permission of use and that the following disclaimer is still shown on the imprints page:

Cambridge International copyright material in this publication is reproduced under licence and remains the intellectual property of Cambridge Assessment International Education.

If the book contains answers to any past paper questions the above disclaimer must be accompanied with the following disclaimer:

Cambridge Assessment International Education bears no responsibility for the example answers to questions taken from its past question papers which are contained in this publication

If as part of the reprint process you wish to add/revise the past paper questions used, you must submit a new copyright application form and a set of proofs for each resource.

5. Confirm if any of Cambridge International's intellectual property is included in any resource (learning objectives, assessment objectives, etc.). If so, please speak to me about gaining permission to use such material.

6. Covers for each component displayed on Peak's website are updated to remove the endorsement logo and make sure that website copy does not imply or directly state that these titles are endorsed by Cambridge International.

When these conditions have been met and checked by us, you will be able to reprint your resources.

With best wishes
